Plymouth Art Weekender

23 / 24 / 25
September

www.plymouthartweekender.com

Welcome to the second Plymouth Art Weekender, an ambitious three-day event celebrating the visual arts across the city between Friday 23rd - Sunday 25th September.

Following a successful 2015 event, the Weekender will once again take over the city, promoting Plymouth as a contemporary art destination with a wide and diverse range of exhibitions and exciting activities for all ages. Following an open call for ideas, over 90 events feature 500 local, national, and international artists. Exhibitions, talks, music, film, workshops, and performances will be staged across Plymouth, taking over galleries, houses, schools and empty buildings, connecting communities together.

The Weekender prides itself on being open to all. Plymouth Art Weekender offers an exciting, eclectic mix of contemporary art, community participation and a warm welcome.

The Weekender events can be navigated through this free

Art Weekender map, available from galleries, shops and libraries across Plymouth, as well as online at plymouthartweekender.com.

The Plymouth Art Weekender is produced by Visual Arts Plymouth, a diverse group of volunteers who represent visual arts organisations, communities and artists from across the city.

Get involved and have a great Weekender.
